They are still in the lead in the Southwest and will always be there with their Large and Liberal Cash Premiums. For all classes of Fine Stock. The usual purses will be given, there will be no entrance fee, and everybody has the same chance. Don't be afraid of freeze outs, you have got a show every time, and if your horse is the fastest you get the purse and it cost you nothing to enter.

THE PRICE OF ADMISSION

THE FLORAL HALL DISPLAY

Will be up to the usual standard, and will be as attractive as last year. The Poultry will be first-class. The premiums are good, and the quantity and quality of the exhibits are better every year.

The Prospects for the Fair

Writes of Politics and the Benefits of Republican Rule.

PADUCAH, Sept. 28.

We are in the midst of one of the greatest campaigns ever waged in this country. The people are again asked by one wing of the Democratic party to adopt a new financial policy, thereby changing every business interest in this country. We are asked to do this merely upon the opinion of Mr. Bryan, that it will benefit us. He says he believes it will help us, but gives no proof.

On the theory that a burnt child is afraid of the fire, we may expect his opinion to be repudiated by a large majority in November.

Four years ago this same man told the people they were being imposed upon by the Republican party, they were taxed too death; duties were imposed for the sole benefit of the manufacturer and the laborer was not benefited thereby. Just give us a chance and see what wonders we will do. We will reduce your taxes, increase the price of farm products and manufactured goods will go down. We will tear down the wall between this country and the English manufacturer and let him bring his millions of dollars worth of goods and wares made by labor costing one-half of what the American laborer gets and we will thus let him flood our markets in unrestricted competition with the American manufacturer, who pays double the wages the Englishmen pays, thus will the unreasonable profits of the American manufacturer be curtailed and you will get your goods cheaper and everything will be lovely. The manufacturer isn't going to give up his manufacturing, you will get the same old wages and we shall cut the profit into and you shall reap the benefits. Doesn't this sound well and enticing? We tried it and don't want any more theories.

Strange to say the sophistry of this reasoning did not reveal itself to the American people. They did not see that every dollar's worth of foreign goods sold here, represents about 75c out of the earnings of American laborer's pocket, and into the foreign laborer's. They were led to believe the Republicans were imposing upon them, that the McKinley law worked only to benefit the manufacturer and eventually so blinded by prejudice convinced wrong theories, overthrew the Republican party, only to find now that Democracy was utterly unable to redeem a single one of its promises. The factories all over this country have closed or reduced the amount of labor employed, because they have been unable to find a market for their produce at reasonable prices.

The products of American labor and American shops have been replaced by European labor and European shops.

The lesson has been a dear one and not to be forgotten so soon by the cry of free silver. Mr. McKinley very recently said: "I think it is better to open up our shops to labor than our minds to Russia, Mexico, Japan and China."

If the Democrats were wrong in 1892, they may be wrong 1896 and the American farmer and laborer will in November return the government to that party under whose rules America prospered and grew as no country in the world ever did before; then the Republican idea of finance and economic will prevail.

There will be a revival and rehabilitation of our industries; labor will again be employed and we shall be happy.

The old colored man put it about right when he said when asked to vote for free silver: "Oh, no, boss! I won't vote for it, kase anything that am free am no account. Use to I would bring $1,000 now I won't bring nothing, too cheap."

W. FRED LONG.

There are a great many of the unfortunate ones in this world, greater in number than those who are blessed with good digestion. To some people the greatest misfortune is not to be able to eat everything set before them. "I suffered for years with Dyspepsia, and everything I ate disagreed with me. I was induced to try Simmons Liver Regulator and was cured. I now eat everything."

SPIRIT OF REVOLUTION ABROAD.

The Criminal Logic of the Populist Position on Finance.

The following sentences are quoted from a little one-page leaflet, which bears no imprint showing its origin, or who is responsible for it. It is given away to people on the streets. "Why are democrats so slow in legislation upon public questions? Being nearer the masses, they have a more diversified interest to serve. What is the cause of their failure as legislators? A lack of courage of their convictions, trying to serve two masters. Why does capital desire servile labor? That a political oligarchy, fostered by class legislation, may perpetuate their power. What is the cause of the dissemination among the working men's organizations? The influence of the press. What is their object? Revenue only. Is there any remedy for existing conditions? THERE IS NO PEACEFUL REMEDY. The author of the above believes the very best remedy that can be applied is for the workmen to ignore the ballot, let the election go by default. Let the manufacturers and the manipulators of election returns do all the voting. And the old maxim that when thieves fall out honest men will get their dues will be realized. Then liberty will emerge from obscurity, and the obnoxious political mountebank will be relegated to private life."

We have printed in capsule the sentence to which we desire to call the especial attention of the public. "There is no peaceful remedy." This is the belief of a large number of those who are pushing the question of free coinage of silver to the front. Gov. Aligned, in his speech opening the campaign in Illinois at Girard, August 20, said that the period of the civil war of 1861-65 was a period of prosperity. He said that in the opinion of the gold standard means the overthrow of republican institutions. The necessary inference is that it would be justifiable on the part of the minority, who believe that the institutions of the republic were in danger to resist their overthrow by force of arms, and the suggestion was thrown out that civil war is not, after all, a great calamity, since it necessitates the issue of paper money, which means the inflation of the currency, which means better prices for labor and for farm products. This is the absurd and criminal logic of the populist position on finance.

Mrs. Smith Woodridge, of Kimble, Ky., was so afflicted with her throat for over two years that she could not speak above a whisper. After she used the first bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey she could talk as well as ever, and the case is such a wonderful cure that her neighbors come in to see for themselves and are astonished to hear her talk.

Sold by all druggists. For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

The crowds continue to call on McKinley, and Bryan continues to call on the crowds.

Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is different from all other cough remedies. It cures by allaying the inflammation and giving tone, strength, vigor and vitality to the respiratory organs.

All druggists sell it. For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

It is alleged that Populists are better judges of Democracy than men who have carried Democratic banners for forty years.

To be dragged down to an early grave by the neglect of a trivial ailment is not an enviable fate, and yet thousands submit to this fate without a struggle. People cannot learn too soon that coughs and colds and affections of the throat and chest cannot be safely neglected. The most fatal disease known to physicians have their inception in these disorders. It is easy to cure a cold. It is impossible to cure consumption. One follows the other as surely as night follows day. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is a sure cure for coughs, colds, throat and chest troubles. Druggists sell it. For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

There would be a scramble to pick up the promises they did not see the string to it.

Simon, Copper, and Then Paper. The owners of copper mines need not be elated with the idea that the argument for cheap silver dollars is a still better argument for cheaper copper dollars. We shall not drop to a copper basis. The ultimate resting place for the popocrate is foredetermined in the platform assertion of the right of the government to issue legal tender paper notes. That is the cheap money paradise into which all the advocates of repudiation are logically drawn.

Don't Go to Russia. The man who cannot see just how the free coinage of silver is going to increase the number of dollars in his pocket should not vote for it.

TESTIMONY OF FIGURES.

Effect of the Monetary Standard on the Farmers.

Any Candid Man Who Considers the Facts Will Easily See That Demonization Has Not Forced Down Prices.

A very striking illustration of the truth with regard to the monetary standard and its effect on farmers is afforded by a table prepared by Mr. L. B. Swift, of Indianapolis, giving the average prices of farm crops by five-year periods, from 1873 to 1893 inclusive. The Dispatch has made similar comparisons for other periods. But this exhibits the actual course of prices so clearly that it is well worth while to repeat it. The prices are gold values and are what the farmers of Indiana received for their products, not those paid in the central markets:

	1873-77	1878-82	1883-87	1888-92
Corn, per bu.	$1.15	$1.10	$1.05	$1.00
Wheat, per bu.	$1.25	$1.20	$1.15	$1.10
Oats, per bu.	$0.85	$0.80	$0.75	$0.70
Hay, per ton	$15.00	$14.00	$13.00	$12.00

Any candid man who considers these figures will easily see that demonization has not forced down prices. All of the products, including wheat, were higher in the five years, 1873-82, than in the preceding years when the alleged demonization commenced. Then the immense developments of wheat territory, both in this country and other parts of the world, brought wheat down and other products with it. Following that, the property in this country permitting an immense home consumption enabled all these products to rise again, and all except wheat to rise more than the average for 1873-7. This testimony, too, can be repeated with regard to other great agricultural staples. Pork was higher in 1893 than in 1873. On the farms, horses, swine, sheep and mules were worth as much in 1890 and 1891 as in 1873-4, while cattle were worth a little less. But in all these 20 years of the standard which Mr. Bryan is denouncing all over the country the crushing decline in agricultural prices had not taken place. Even the value of the yield of wheat per acre in the United States was as great in 1891 as in 1873, and greater than in 1874 and 1875.

This was the case up to the close of 1894, under 20 years of the policy which the democratic candidate is attacking. But then something happened. To show how what happened then affected the farmers, we compare the prices given in the last column of the above table with those given by the United States statistical abstract, for 1895:

Corn, per bu.	$0.95
Wheat, per bu.	$1.05
Oats, per bu.	$0.65
Hay, per ton	$11.00

Do the farmers know what hit them in 1895? The same policy meddling with business, advocated by the same man who is now stamping the country with the same abundant promises of unalloyed prosperity if they would vote him and his party into power. The people, or a share of them, were deluded by these promises. The result is shown above, and the way it worked is also statistically shown. The ability of the industrial and mercantile population of the country to consume farm products was reduced 45 per cent. on wheat, about 42 on cotton, over 40 on corn, 30 on wool and other products in proportion. When their chief and sure market was so much restricted, is it any wonder that the farmer's products dropped more in three years of democratic rule than in 20 years of "sound money" and protection?

The question for the farmers to decide is whether they will continue the regime that has inflicted this injury on them, or whether they will restore the conditions prior to 1892, when the industries of the country were able to buy farm products and pay living prices for them.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

It is all right for a "so called" Democrat to vote for a Populist, but all wrong for a so-called Democrat to vote for a National Democrat.

Beware of the Knife.

Mr. Lincoln Nelson, of Marshfield, Mo., writes: "For six years I have been a sufferer from a scrofulous affection of the glands of my neck, and all efforts of physicians in Washington, D. C., Springfield, Ill., and St. Louis failed to reduce the enlargement. After six months' constant treatment here, my physician urged me to submit to a removal of the gland. At this critical moment a friend recommended S.S.S., and laying aside a deep-rooted prejudice against all patent medicines, I began its use. Before I had used one bottle the enlargement began to disappear, and now it is entirely gone, though I am not through with my second bottle yet. Had I only used your S.S.S. long ago, I would have escaped years of misery and saved over $50."

This experience is like that of all who suffer with deep-seated blood troubles. The doctors can do no good, and even their resorts to the knife prove either fruitless or fatal. S.S.S. is the only real blood remedy; it gets at the root of the disease and forces it out permanently.

S.S.S. (guaranteed purely vegetable) is a blood remedy for real blood troubles; it cures the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, Eczema, Cancer, Rheumatism, etc., which other so-called blood remedies fail to touch. S.S.S. gets at the root of the disease and forces it out permanently. Valuable books will be sent free to any address by the Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

LEWIS' RECEPTION

By the People of Breckinridge County
was Grand.

Many Democrats and Populists will Support Him.

HARDINSBURG, Sept. 30.

During the last two weeks the Republicans of Breckinridge county have been unusually active; the Populists in the mean time have not been asleep. On the 19th Mr. Lewis began his canvass in this county. His first speech was made at Hardinsburg.
A large crowd which packed the Court House to the door greeted him and gave him marked attention. His entire effort was directed to a discussion of the financial and tariff questions.
He made telling hits throughout his masterly address and was enthusiastically applauded from time to time.
Mr. Lewis surprised his many friends by his many superb flights of oratory. His eulogy of McKinley especially was eloquent and its close brought forth loud and prolonged cheering.

Many ladies were present, and at the close of Mr. Lewis' address, a large and beautiful bouquet of roses and other fragrant flowers was presented to him by the ladies of Hard-insburg.

His acceptance of and thanks for their token of esteem, was most appropriate and captured the ladies.

At every point in this county
Mr. Lewis was met by large and enthusiastic audiences. At Stephenport there was a tremendous crowd and a glee club of 30 members from Rome, Indiana, came over and added largely to the impressiveness and gaiety of the occasion. Mr. Lewis has made votes and friends by his swing around the circle in Breckinridge county.

Hon. Ben L. Bruner, our Assisant Electro, has also made a thorough canvass of this county. We did not have the pleasure of hearing him speak, but we understand that he is a bright and convincing young speaker, and made telling addresses wherever he spoke.

Two local Popocratic celebrities undertook to answer him at two points in the county, but they were made to regret their fool-hardiness. They were soundly spanked by the young Republican champion, to the great delight of his friends.

The Democrats had a big "blow-out," at Kirk last Saturday. A twenty flag pole was raised and then the crowd retired to a shady spot and were addressed by Mr. J. K. Lemon, a prominent Popocrat of this county, and Judge Mercer, who is a big man in the camp of the Bryanites. Both speakers thrashed over, old straw, and while their efforts were quite creditable, they made no votes, and established very clearly the fact that they were trying to bolster up a wood and delapidated cause.

The Popocrats are badly rattled in this county and are ready to make deals of any sort with any one, to save themselves.

The Republicans of this county will have a grand rally here on the 12th of October. Attorney General
Taylor will be the orator of the day, and will be greeted by the largest crowd ever assembled at this place,
to here a political speaker.

There was much soreness here
among Popocrats over the treatment received by Hon. D. R. Murray at Elizabethtown. If Mr. Murray had remained on the track many Populists would have voted for him. But as Mr. Smith has been declared the nominee by the State Central Committee, the Popocrats of the county will go for him. The Populists however have no love for Smith and will not support him. Mr. Lewis will therefore carry the county by a majority of about 500. ROBIN HOOD.

ley will speak at the

NEURALGIA cured by Dr. M. M. PAIN. "This cost a dollar. As all cruzzies."

If any man or any newspaper tells you that the St. Louis platform pronounces for gold monometallism or it does serious violence to the truth. That platform declares in favor of patriotic bimetalism.

The effort of Candidate Bryan and the popocratic leaders to array labor and capital against each other, though predicated to deserved failure, is still the worst piece of political criminality upon record.

The popocratic candidate says that the campaign for free silver is a great humanitarian movement, and meanwhile Nabob Stewart, his co-humanitarian, continues to pay his printers nine dollars a week.

Mr. Bryan says that the United States is large enough to fix its own money standard regardless of the world. And yet China, with five or six times the population, is unable to do it. Evidently history has no terrors for some men.

In speaking of Mr. Bryan, it should not be forgotten that he helped to frame the Wilson tariff law, which closed more shops and threw more men out of employment than any other one piece of legislation in the whole history of the country.

As the result of a careful poll, the New York Herald estimates that McKinley's majority in New York will be in the neighborhood of 200,000. May be the Herald understates the case, but the figures named will answer all practical purposes.

If the farmers really want to prosper why don't they get a law passed providing that the government shall purchase all the wheat and corn they raise at the uniform price of one dollar a bushel? They ought to have as good a chance at the treasury as the mine-owners.

Men who have money in savings banks, men who have pensions, creditors of all kinds, clerks with fixed salaries and workmen with regular wages will all be sufferers should the democratic policy of silver monometallism be carried out—unless, indeed, it should be carried out on a stretcher in November and buried.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1896.

POWDERLY'S POSITION.

Ex-Master Workman Tells Why He Is Opposed to Free Coinage.

Would Not Help Workmen—Panic Would Follow Bryan's Election, and Panic Is a Poor Path to Prosperity.

Those who make light of what is termed the silver issue cannot, I imagine, have given the subject a great deal of thought. For many years the silver men have been active in spreading the gospel of free coinage. By incessant labor these silverites have succeeded in committing some industrial organizations to the advocacy of free and unlimited coinage at the rate of sixteen to one. They have so industriously circulated the story of "the crime of 1873," that the belief that silver was steadily and surreptitiously demonetized has gained great headway, and the means of depriving their statements are not accessible to many.

A fact lost sight of is that those who have exposed the alleged crime were themselves criminals. They sat in congress when the bill was passed, they took part in the debates and by their votes aided in the passage of the act. The free coinage measure is not a labor measure, but by skillful juggling with industrial organizations many have been broken up in consequence of other demands being set aside for that of free coinage. Had the men who discovered the "crime" not been owners of silver mines, or did they not wish to unload stock in silver properties on the way, no one would have heard more of the act of 1873.

Go carefully over Mr. Bryan's speeches and you do not find a single labor measure championed. During my 27 years' connection with labor organizations, I never heard the name of Mr. Bryan until about two or three years ago. He is vouched for by no one; he nominated himself in a speech about crucifying labor upon a cross of gold, but his only solution of the difficulty is to break the bones of labor upon a rack of silver. He says the purchasing power of the gold dollar has doubled. Is not that a gain to labor? If it will buy twice as much wheat, corn, or potatoes as before, will not the farmer buy twice as much of what he requires with the gold dollar than with the 23-cent silver dollar. He does not say that while the gold dollar will buy 100 cents' worth of produce, the silver dollar and the paper dollar which this government has pledged its honor, and the honor of every loyal citizen, to maintain on a parity with gold, will buy just as much as the gold dollar.

Mr. Bryan speaks only for the silver men. He knows their wants, but has never familiarized himself with the wants of the industrialists of the nation. He suggests no method of distributing the products of the farm among the needy or of securing to the needy the means of procuring what the farmer produces.

He has not realized that through the introduction of electricity as a substitute for horse-power millions of horses have been disposed of, and the loss to the farmers, in a lack of demand for oats and hay, has gone into hundreds of millions. How will free silver create a demand for oats and hay? He speaks of gold plutocrats lordling it over the people, but does not explain how a gold plutocrat is any worse than a silver one. He would exchange one set of plutocrats for another, and in doing so establish the rule of the minority, who have already been favored more than any other.

He would change the constitution of the United States in some particulars, but if he ever succeeds in opening the door for a change the place to begin is in the state of Nevada, the home of this agitation for the elevation of the single silver standard. Nevada has a population of less than 40,000. My home, the city of St. Louis, has a population of 115,000. Take 92,000, or double the population of Nevada, from the population of St. Louis and we have 23,000 people, or enough to make a good-sized city. Nevada has two senators to about 40,000 people, while the city of St. Louis has no representative in the senate to boom our coal, iron or steel and demand of the government to double the value of either.

Mr. Bryan, if he has not been misquoted, admits that if he is elected this country will be plunged into a frightful panic. I believe he speaks the truth, for there appears to be no way to avoid it if free and unlimited coinage of silver prevails.

I was one of the victims of the panic of 1873, and I know hundreds of others who have never recovered from its effects. If the American people are wise they will improve the present monetary standard without plunging the country into another panic.

He must be a poor statesman indeed who can point out the road to prosperity only through a panic. And unless the American people have lost their senses they will not entrust power to so inexperienced a man advocating such unreasonable demands.—T. V. Powderly, to the N. Y. World.

The Common People.
Candidate W. J. Bryan is continually talking about the common people. What does he mean by the common people? Does he mean that free-silver people are common and those for true bimetalism are uncommon? Is he trying to adopt "class" politics? If so, free silver appeals and when any candidate makes appeals for the rich against the poor, or to the poor against the rich, he always gets left. Some of the poorest men financially are the most prominent in the nation, and some of the richest are the poorest in morality and brains. It would sound much better if Mr. Bryan would appeal to American citizens instead of the "common" people. We are as a nation either all common or there is nothing common about it. I think it is the latter.—Dwight (Ill.) Star-Herald.

Third.—Give your opinion as to the difference between its strength and action, and the strength and action of the "Liver Regulator" made by J. H. Zella & Co., and the "Black Draught" made by Chattanooga Medicine Co.; both of which have sold to dealers at 6 or 7 cents per package, not, and should retail at not over 10 or 12 cents. If consumers are not imposed upon, while our Original cannot be sold at less than 25 cents per package, as we have too much regard for human life to use cheap drugs in any of our medicines. The reason is plain: Zeila & Co. and the proprietors of "Black Draught" were both enjoined from deceiving the public by using the words constituting our trade name; therefore, look out that some dealer (not knowing you are posted) don't sell you some cheap package at a profit of 800 or 400 per cent. Instead of our Genuine "Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine," which you are sure to specify, and take no other, as there is nothing else like it.

On receipt of your letter enclosing photograph, we will mail you free of charge, a $1.00 package Liver Medicine, or on receipt of letter without photograph, we will mail you 25-cent package, free.
